NOTES

Maximum of one suitcase + one carry-on (or similar) per person. Space for transport is limited. Otherwise, an additional vehicle will need to be hired specifically for luggage transport.
 For bike rental, we need the passengers' height and weight.
 Passengers must complete a registration form that will be sent one week before the start of the trip.
 I have added a new clause that was not previously specified, stating that passengers must have their own travel insurance covering adventure tourism activities, specifically including mountain biking.
 If they do not have this coverage, we can offer a personal accident insurance policy that covers the activity, at a cost of USD 30 per person.
